

MV STELLA AUSTRALIS

“Stella Australis” is a luxury cruise ship launched in December 2010. Owned by Cruceros Australis she joins her sister ships Mare Australis and Via Australis, all specially designed for Patagonia cruising.

Specifications:

- Constructed at ASENNAV shipyard in Chile in 2010. The passenger vessel was built on par with the standards of SOLAS 2001 and MARPOL 73/78.
- Length: 89 mts.(292 ft) Breadth: 14.6 mts. (47.8 ft)
- Propulsion: The ship is powered by two Cummins diesel engines of 1,400hp each. Maximum speed of 13 kts
- Navigation & Safety: Latest navigation and safety technology – echo sounder, radar, GPS and modern communication systems. Emergency generators, fire extinguishers and sprinkler fire suppression system, smoke detectors in all cabins, corridors and lounge areas.
- Accommodation: 100 cabins - 96 of 16.5 m2 (177 sq ft), and 4 superior cabins of 20.5 m2 (221 sq ft). All cabins have picture windows, independently controlled heater, air conditioning, a private bathroom, safety deposit box and satellite phone.
- Crew: The ship accommodates 62 crew members.
- Facilities: 5 decks, 3 lounges, a dining room, large open deck to view scenery, bar and gym
- 220/110 power US type

Amenities & Activities:

- The cruise is all inclusive – breakfast, lunch, dinner and open bar for wine, beer, liquor and other beverages. The menu combines international and local cuisine, accompanied by Chilean and Argentine wines.
- Four Zodiac inflatables for daily excursions and wildlife watching, accompanied by expert guides in small groups.
- Official languages on board are Spanish and English.
- Daily lectures on animals, plants, history, geography, glaciology and ethnography of the region.

<http://www.australis.com/site/en-us/darwin/new-cruise-ship-stella-australis/>

Twin Cabin

AAA Superior Cabin

